2 The vrging of that word Iudgement, hath bred
A kind of remorſe in me.

For killing him, from which no warrant can defend vs.

Thy conſcience flies out.

2 Ile not meddle with it, it is a dangerous thing,
It makes a man a coward. A man can not ſteale,
But it accuſeth him: he cannot ſweare, but it checks him:
He cannot lie with his neighbours wife, but it detects
Him. It is a bluſhing ſhamfaſt ſpirit, that mutinies
In a mans boſome: it fils one full of obſtacles,
It made me once reſtore a purſe of gold that I found,
It beggers any man that keepes it: it is turnd out of all
Townes and Cities for a daungerous thing, and euerie
Man that meanes to liue well, endeuours to truſt
To himſelfe, and to liue without it.
